

an individual experience

Amara Sanctuary Resort Sentosa, an award winning boutique resort of 140 rooms, suites and villas, welcomes you to explore your senses with its comprehensive five star resort facilities and a host of fun activities.

1 Kacang Puteh

Relish the good old days when kacang puteh reigned supreme as the must-have indulgence at the movies. Served daily in a nostalgic traditional pushcart at the lobby.

---

2 Glass Pavilion Antique Bell

Fondly known as the 'Glass Chapel' with an antique bell, restored from the oldest chapel on Sentosa Island dated back as early as 1930s.

3 Garden

The resort's 3.8 hectares of lush greenery poses an array of botanical and horticultural wonders that lend an exotic summer vibe to your retreat.

4 Colonial Block

Formerly the WWII British Sergeant's quarters from the 1930s, the well restored Colonial Blocks now house the Verandah Suites and Courtyard Suites.

---

5 British Sole Cleaner

Transform back in time to the 1930s when British soldiers observed basic cleanliness by ridding the dirt and grimes from their boots before entering the barracks.

6 Preserved Air-Raid Shelter

One of Singapore's last remaining WWII air-raid shelters, that had provided protection from the bomb drops during the war - remains in tip top condition.

7 Heritage Award

In recognition of its effort in preserving the rich heritage of Singapore, the resort is conferred the prestigious URA Architectural Heritage Award Category A.

8 Peacocks

Here you will be surprised to find many free-roaming peacocks and peahens that bring you one step closer to nature.

9 Mansion

Formerly the WWII British Officers' quarters from the 1930s, the Larkhill Mansion is restored to perfection, it retains old colonial charm yet exudes modern elegance.

10 Larkhill Terrace

Formerly a colonial British Army barrack during WWII, it was occupied by Scripture Union, a non-profit Christian organization after WWII. The beautifully restored Larkhill Terrace Suites embody quaint historical charm with a touch of modernity.
